

Leadership Style

Assessment Results

Take it again!

We know that being a good leader is a moving target. Whether it's changes in the company, changes in your team, or changes in your own goals, there's always something new to learn and room to grow. We hope the results of this assessment help you to discover some of your hidden strengths and draw attention to new focus areas. We encourage you to use these results for continued growth on your leadership development journey.

PEOPLE FIRST LEADER

STRENGTHS:

- Servant leadership
- A coaching mindset
- Empathy
- Active listening
- Valuing employee 1:1 time

BLINDSPOTS:

- Imposter syndrome and/or confidence
- Holding the team accountable
- Executing on company goals
- Overwhelm and burnout
- Providing effective feedback

GET SH*T DONE LEADER

STRENGTHS:

- Providing clear direction
- Holding the team accountable
- Delegating
- Giving and receiving feedback
- Taking risks
- Confidence in your leadership

BLINDSPOTS:

- Emotional Intelligence
- Putting the company first
- Being directive
- Being firm or hard on your team
- Recognizing when your team needs help